

Silver Lake History Collective – Draft Minutes 01.07.16

1. The meeting was called to order at the Silver Lake Library community room at 6:30 PM

Present:

Michael Masterson - Co-Chair, Cheryl Revkin - Co-Chair and scribe, John Wingler - SLNC liaison, Tricia McGrath, Beverly Lorenc, Jenifer Palmer-Lacy – committee archivist, Marco Larsen – committee technical advisor

2. Public Comment:

There is a free classical music concert, sponsored by the SLNC, at St Francis of Assisi on 1/15 8pm given by the Contemporary Performance Collective.

Jenifer Palmer-Lacy is exhibiting her artwork at GGPAC until March.

Jenifer is still working on writing a book on SL for Arcadia Press.

The SLNC Budget is complete.

3. Minutes from November meeting were reviewed and adopted.

4. Agenda Items:

Erika Silverman and Lisa Palombi want to screen “SHOTGUN FREEWAY” in conjunction with the SLHC. We suggest that they coordinate the screening with the birthday of LA in September or The Big Parade in May. They want to invite the director Morgan Neville. Cheryl will try to help invite him.

Tricia and Marco interviewed Genelle LeVin (soon to be up on YouTube, we are waiting for photos). Tricia will give Ron the info needed for our spreadsheet. Tricia and Marco also filmed Jackie Goldberg at a LACER event. Tricia hopes to do a formal interview with Jackie to go along with this LACER footage.

Marco reported that Queerwise is ready to go up on our YouTube channel

Tricia will try and set up interview with the “pulpiteer” Lee Boek. Michael will contact Mitch O’Farrell for an interview. Cheryl contacted David Ryu and is waiting to see about an interview. Cheryl will contact the Kwoh family (Flower Drum Song).

It was decided that the entire committee be notified once an interview is scheduled so that other members can participate if they desire.

5. We all need to think about whom to nominate for the next SLHC award. We have two awards already paid for. We will discuss at the next meeting. Nina Sorkin was one name proposed. Most of us liked this idea.

7. We adjourned at 7:20 PM
