

Silver Lake History Collective Minutes – 10-05-17

The meeting was called to order at the Silver Lake Library community room at 6:35 PM

Present were Marco Larsen, Michael Masterson, Jenifer Lacy-Palmer, Cheryl Revkin, Mark Simon, Debbie Jigmanian, Kendra Kozen

Public Comment:

Thursday October 12 at 7:30 PM at Skylight Books, Tom Anderson event for his new book. He wrote “LA Plays Itself.”

Old Business:

Interviews:

Stuart Timmons Memorial not up yet; no response from Silver Lake Lounge yet; Mark needs to get Susan Simpson’s phone number – she has not replied to his email; Tricia wants to do a second session about the Silver Lake Garden Club to complete her video; Adam Tenenbaum (Chandelier Tree) will go up soon, Marco did some extra shots at the house, but needs to finish editing.

Transcription services:

Marco did a lot of work. He thinks the only possibility for us would be a computer transcription service. He tried VOICEBASE which allows 50 free hours. He used a clear audiotape with unacceptable results. He will try our David Ryu interview and see how it goes. It is 2cent/minute and must have credit card on file to bill as you go. The most affordable is 500 minutes or less/month. Michael thinks we could get a certain amount approved by the SLNC and possibly Betsy could use the SLNC credit card as we go.

New Business:

Archives Bazaar: We have coverage for morning and afternoon. Michael will arrange our parking passes. Debbie has promoted it by distributing postcards about the event. Cheryl will get candy. Marco will bring equipment and materials including poster standee for the table, Silver Lake history brochure and Silver Lake stairs map that Betsy will get to him. Cheryl has some old brochures.

YouTube update: Marco got the Black Cat memorial event filmed by him and Mark up on YouTube.

Facebook/social media update: Kendra volunteered to be our new social media coordinator. She and Michael will put up a Facebook page. Kendra and Michael will maintain it and link it to Twitter feeds. Later we will consider Instagram. YAY!
